S.1. Cost-Effectiveness of Early Interventions, Compared with That of California’s Three-Strikes Law ........ xiv
S.2. How Different Combinations of Cost and Prevention Rate Influence Relative Cost-Effectiveness ........ xvi
1. Serious Crimes Prevented per Million Dollars ........ 26
2. Criminal Justice System Savings from Some Early Interventions Are a Substantial Fraction of Program Costs ............................................ 27
3. Early-Intervention Alternatives Would Be Much Less Costly but Have Less Impact on Crime Than the Three-Strikes Law ............................ 30
4. Threshold Values of Program Cost and Pilot Prevention Rate, Where Parent Training Becomes More Cost-Effective Than Three Strikes ........ 33
5. Threshold Values of Program Cost and Pilot Prevention Rate, Where Graduation Incentives Become More Cost-Effective Than Three Strikes .... 34
6. Threshold Values of Program Cost and Pilot Prevention Rate, Where Delinquent Supervision Becomes More Cost-Effective Than Three Strikes .... 35