1.1. Common Complaints of Gulf War Veterans ................. 5
1.2. Common Complaints of Individuals Who Served in the Gulf War .............................................. 5
1.3. Gastrointestinal Infections Identified Among Individuals Serving in the Gulf War ................................ 7
1.4. Respiratory Pathogens Identified Among Individuals Serving in the Gulf War ................................ 7
1.5. Other Infections Identified Among Individuals Serving in the Gulf War ........................................ 7
1.6. Infections Common in the Persian Gulf But Not Diagnosed Among Individuals Serving in the Gulf War .......... 8
1.7. Other Infections Possibly Related to Gulf War Illnesses ........ 9
3.1. Subhypotheses and Related Questions ...................... 18
3.2. Mycoplasma Test Results in Gulf War Veterans and Controls ......................................................... 22
3.3. M. Fermentans Incognitus by PCR, Using Primers Specific for a Hairpin Region of M. Incognitus, on Peripheral Blood Mononuclear Cells ................................................. 25
3.4. Recovery of Ill Gulf War Veterans with Antibiotic Treatment ......................................................... 27
3.5. Synopses of Mycoplasma Studies in Gulf War Veterans .... 29
6.1. Old World Cutaneous Leishmaniasis ....................... 70
6.2. Visceral Leishmaniasis ........................................ 71
6.3. Findings Among First Eight Gulf War Veterans Diagnosed with Viscerotropic Leishmaniasis ................. 72