Re: Corrected pages (pp. xvii, xviii, xxi, xxiii, xxiv, xxvi, 24, 26, 38, 97, 116, and 146)

The following changes have been made since initial publication. They re-establish the visibility of an important point recognized early in research but inadvertently submerged in the many cycles of manuscript revision:

- On p. xviii:, the following sentence was added to the end of the paragraph on motivation: “Motivation can also be ‘negative,’ as in avoiding being killed or punished.”
- On p. 26, the end of the sentence about “other possible motivations” was revised as follows: “There are also other possible motivations, such as joining from a sense of duty or honor, albeit without enthusiasm, or joining because of the possibility of rewards such as gaining power, wealth, prestige—or not suffering punishment, such as being killed.”
- In the factor trees in Figures S.1–S.5, 2.1, 3.1, 4.4, 5.2, and 6.3 (on pp. xvii, xxi, xxiii, xxiv, xxvi, 24, 38, 97, 116, and 146), “Not being killed or punished” was added to the list of rewards under “Motivation for supporting group or cause.”
